

ANNE COGLIANESE

Education

- University of Michigan, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy 2021
- e Master of Public Affairs, expected graduation May 2021e
- University of Richmond, Jepson School of Leadership Studies 2015
- e Bachelor of Arts in Leadership Studies, with a minor in Environmental Studiese
- World Learning, International Honors Program 2013
- e Studied climate change in Vietnam, Morocco, and Bolivia; Researched climate threats to food and water securitye

Professional Experience

City of New Orleans, Mayor's Office of Resilience and Sustainability March 2017 – July 2020
Coastal Resilience Manager

Responsible for advancing New Orleans' goal of restoring and protecting the coast of Louisiana to increase the resilience of New Orleans communities, enhance the region's economy, and protect the natural environment

- e Led the development of the City's coastal strategy and restoration projects in Orleans Parish in support of the State'se Master Plan for a Sustainable Coaste
- e Managed applications, reports, and action plans required by State and Federal agencies to access coastal resources,e including federal funding and programs such as RESTORE Act, GoMESA, and NFWFe
- e Coordinated between City agencies and departments, and served as a liaison for non-governmental partners and thee Louisiana Coastal Protection and Restoration Authoritye
- e Drafted policy and briefing memos for the Mayor, Chief Resilience Officer, and executive staff on coastal policye

White House Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) September 2015 – January 2017

Special Assistant for Climate Preparedness and Resilience (December 2015 – January 2017)

Responsible for supporting and coordinating the development of climate adaptation and resilience policies to meet the Obama Administration's resilience goals and implement the President's Climate Action Plan

- e Supported the interagency Council on Climate Preparedness and Resilience, involving over 25 Federal agenciese
- e Co-lead the production of the White House Champions of Change for Climate Equity event which recognized locale leaders from across the country who are making an impact at the community levele
- e Coordinated with the State Department to develop resilience-focused events for the COP21 and COP22 meetings,e highlighting domestic examples of resilience progress and distilling lessons learned for an international audiencee
- e Developed weekly reports on progress of Climate Action Plan resilience goals for President Obama's Senior Staffe
- e Coordinated with the CEQ Offices of Public Engagement, Communications, and Legislative Affairs to organize over ae dozen White House-sponsored climate resilience events, announcements, and rolloutse

Acting Executive Assistant to the Managing Director (June 2016 – October 2016)

Managed the schedules and workflow for the Managing Director and Chief of Staff, including coordinating speaking requests, assembling briefing materials and talking points, and making travel arrangements

Intern (September 2015 – December 2015)

Supported the Climate Preparedness team through research, policy, and administrative support

The Wharton Initiative for Global Environmental Leadership (IGEL), Intern June 2014 – January 2015

Assisted IGEL staff in developing content for and holding meetings of business leaders to provide companies with information to enhance sustainability, improve supply chain management, and spur climate innovation

Boards and Commissions

Member, Louisiana Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority – Master Plan Advisory Team 2019 – Present

Advise the State of Louisiana on the development of the 2023 Master Plan for a Sustainable Coast, specifically encouraging the State to incorporate human-centric resilience planning into traditional scientific modeling/data

Board Member, Environmental Policy Association, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy 2020 – Present

Lead graduate student association in promoting smart public policy solutions to protect the environment, conserve natural resources, and reduce inequality in vulnerable communities

Member, C40 Connecting Delta Cities Network 2018 – 2020

Represented New Orleans in an international network of flood experts. Currently working to mainstream adaptation policies and deliver concrete climate change solutions to the unique challenges faced by cities built on wetland