The proposed PUD will provide for development of residential multi-family townhomes with greater density than the current RR category. Further, commercial uses will be eliminated to accommodate the residential multi-family development. Appropriate buffers will be provided along adjacent properties and recreation space within the PUD will be provided.

VII. JUSTIFICATION FOR PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT CLASSIFICATION FOR THIS PROJECT

The proposed project is consistent with the general purpose and intent of the City of Jacksonville 2045 Comprehensive Plan and Land Use Regulations. The proposed project will be beneficial to the surrounding neighborhood and community.

- A. Is more efficient than would be possible through strict application of the Zoning Code;
- B. Is compatible with surrounding land uses and will improve the characteristics of the surrounding area by developing two large vacant parcels zoned RR-Acre into a medium-density residential property consisting of 65 individually owned townhomes with privately maintained roads and infrastructure which is less impactful than what is currently allowed and is consistent with nearby residential uses;
- C. Will promote the purposes of the City of Jacksonville 2045 Comprehensive Plan by developing two large vacant parcels zoned RR-Acre into a medium-density residential property consisting of 65 individually owned townhomes with privately maintained roads and infrastructure which is less impactful than what is currently allowed and is consistent with nearby residential uses;

- D. Provides a needed service in the area by developing two large vacant parcels zoned RR-Acre into a medium-density residential property consisting of 65 individually owned townhomes maintain roads and infrastructure which is less impactful that what is currently allowed and is consistent with nearby residential uses.
