

JILL C. ENZ, ASLA, PLA

10374 Sequoya Dr.
Jacksonville, FL 32257

SUMMARY

Experienced Landscape Architect and project manager; able to design, document and oversee installation of a full range site designs.

- Create presentation material to communicate project plans and goals. Experience collaborating with citizens, developers, non-profit groups, politicians and other stakeholders to find the best project solutions.
- Skilled in construction management, managing contractors, and employees while completing work on schedule and within budget.
- Create cost savings in projects to ensure projects are within budget and reduce future maintenance needs.
- Guide and mentor team members and other staff in parks, safety, project management and landscapes.
- Advanced user of CADD, Adobe Suite, MS Office.

EXPERIENCE

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, Jacksonville, Florida

May 2016-Present

Parks Development and Natural Resources Manager

- Manage wide range of park development projects from design through construction and maintenance.
- Grant management including writing, commencement and project tracking documentation.
- Work with maintenance staff to create projects that are more easily maintained and improvements are longer lasting.
- Integrate park improvements with art and natural design solutions.

JILL ENZ DESIGN, Jacksonville, Florida

July 2013 –May 2016

Landscape Architect

- Site analysis, construction details and residential design for Florida clients.
- Prepare master plan for the North Pond Nature Sanctuary along lakefront in Chicago.
- Design guidance for black and gray water recycling systems.

APPLIED ECOLOGICAL SERVICES, West Dundee, Illinois

July 2004 –June 2013

Landscape Architect, Project Manager

- Prepare and revise landscape architecture plans from concept through construction documentation including: site analysis, master planning, design development, bid documents, public board presentations, on site surveying and layout, and construction oversight for commercial sites and large developments.
- Prepare proposals, respond to clients, oversee, manage and control design and construction budgets.
- Direct and manage multidisciplinary teams of engineers, landscape architects and ecologists completing consulting design and research projects up to six million dollars.
- Hire and supervise staff of 6.
- Develop and document best management practices (BMP) guidelines and worked with engineering staff on stormwater management and stream restoration projects.
- Manage, research and write EPA funded Watershed Plan with diverse stakeholder group.
- Researched and wrote aesthetic native plant database for Chicago Park District.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY, DEPARTMENT OF ARCHITECTURE,

Manhattan, Kansas

January 2002 – May 2004

Graduate Assistant

- Developed course material and presented lectures lectured on topics of Hydrology, Food Production and Waste.
- Provided feedback to students for presentations and evaluated project performance.

BAKER'S SUPERMARKETS, Omaha, Nebraska

October 1997 – August 2001

Assistant Director Information Technology

- Responsible for maintaining integrity of UNIX and MS Access databases across 24 stores and corporate headquarters in a 24x7 operations environment.
- Supervised staff of twelve IT professionals and help desk staff in a fast paced, production environment.
- Oversaw PC configuration, installation and maintenance across the entire corporation.

CHECKPOINT SYSTEMS, Eden Prairie, Minnesota

March 1995 – August 1997

Project Manager / Technical Representative

- Negotiated contracts with contractors and building trade unions of approximately 10 million annually.
- Managed labor and materials to meet customer due dates and expectations, while maximizing internal budgets.

EDUCATION

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Manhattan, Kansas

College of Architecture, Planning and Design

Master of Arts, Landscape Architecture

June 2004

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Madison, Wisconsin

B.A., English Literature

May 1994

LICENSURE

Registered Landscape Architect, State of Florida.

AWARDS

2004 HIDEO SASAKI FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP WINNER – 2004

A multidisciplinary, national award granted to the "outstanding planning and design student pursuing the integration of professional design disciplines."

ASLA CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE STUDENT

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE RESEARCHER

PUBLICATIONS

AND

PRESENTATIONS

- Co-author: "Application of a Participatory Ex Ante Assessment Model for Environmental Governance and Visualizing Sustainable Redevelopment in Gorj County, Romania", Agricultural and Environmental Informatics, Governance and Management: Emerging Research Applications. IGI Global, 2011.
- Co-author, "Cost Savings in Ecologically Designed Conservation Developments" Greening Our Built World: Costs, Benefits, and Strategies. Island Press, 2008.
- Sustainable Landscapes for a Greener Future, Panel Member: Morton Arboretum, 10/2011
- Native Plant Landscaping Basics Presentation: National Recreation and Park Association, 8/2008

PROFESSIONAL

AFFILIATIONS

American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA)

VOLUNTEER

Loretto Elementary School PTA

Jacksonville, FL

Christian Family Chapel, Nursery

Jacksonville, FL

REFERENCES

Available on request