Bill Type and Number: Resolution 2026-204

Introducer/Sponsor(s): Council President at the request of the Mayor

Date of Introduction: March 10, 2026

Committee(s) of Reference: R

Date of Analysis: March 11, 2026

Type of Action: Reappointment confirmation

Bill Summary: This bill confirm the Mayor's reappointment of Kate Moorehead Carroll to the Homelessness Initiatives Commission for a second term ending February 28, 2028.

Background Information: Chapter 89, Ordinance Code established the Homelessness Initiatives Commission as an advisory body of the City to assess the current unmet needs of Duval County's homeless and chronic unhoused populations and to make recommendations regarding programs, initiatives and services to be funded by the City's Homelessness Initiatives Special Revenue Fund.

Pursuant to Section 86.103 (a), Ordinance Code, four members of the general public shall be appointed by the Council President and confirmed by Council, and three members of the general public shall be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by Council. To the extent possible, each of the members of the general public should possess specialized knowledge about the needs of the homeless and chronic unhoused populations.

Reverend Carroll holds a bachelor's degree from Vassar College, attended Yale Divinity School, and earned her Master of Divinity from Virginia Theological Seminary. She is the Dean of St. John's Cathedral in Downtown Jacksonville.

Attendance: Reverend Carroll attended 14 of 18 (78%) meetings in her first term.

Policy Impact Area: Homelessness Initiatives Commission operations

Fiscal Impact: No direct cost to the City
