PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Program Description – The Children's Initiative by Angel Kids Foundation: Angel Kids Foundation's Children's Initiative is a comprehensive Program designed to address the complex relationship between social determinants and health outcomes among children and families in Duval County. The Program's primary goal is to foster equitable health access by integrating behavioral health services into pediatric primary care, with a special focus on serving underserved populations who face barriers such as inadequate insurance coverage, poverty, and limited access to quality care. The Children's Initiative aims to reduce disparities by offering integrated, multidisciplinary care through strategically located clinics, extended evening and weekend office hours, and telehealth services, ensuring that children and adolescents ages 0-17 can access both physical and behavioral health care regardless of their ability to pay. This integrated approach is delivered by a team of medical professionals, psychologists, mental health clinicians, and care coordinators, all working collaboratively to provide comprehensive, patientcentered care. By physically co-locating services, the Program reduces barriers such as stigma, transportation challenges, and fragmented care, while also improving compliance with recommended services and reducing missed appointments. Care coordinators, who are specially trained in trauma-informed and equitable care, use the PRAPARE survey – available in seven languages – to identify and address non-medical barriers to health, ensuring that the unmet needs of families are addressed within 72 hours and connections to resources are made within 30 days. This Program was created in partnership with Angel Kids Pediatrics, as a bridge to treat the whole child, and support the whole family, particularly those located in underserved areas by creating an approach that is focused on awareness, access and advocacy to promote the link between the health of the child and the resilience of the family, environment and community overall.

The Children's Initiative is particularly vital in our region where more than one in five children living below the poverty line experience mental, behavioral, or developmental disorders, and where Florida ranks at the bottom in mental health care funding. The Program's goals include a 20% reduction in symptom severity for mental health conditions, as measured by standardized assessment tools, and ensuring that 80% of children engage in care without missing appointments. By focusing on prevention, timely intervention, and holistic support, the Program not only improves individual health outcomes but also aims to shift the community's approach to pediatric health from reactive to proactive. Of the families who are assessed and indicate a risk factor on the evidence based PRAPARE survey, 95% will receive care coordination resources, support or services. This funding request is intended to support programmatic expenses, including staffing, training, assessments, therapy, and care coordination activities necessary to sustain and expand this integrated care model. Through these efforts, Angel Kids Foundation's Children's Initiative will continue to break down barriers to care and improve the health and well-being of Duval County's most vulnerable children and families.

PROGRAM SCOPE OF WORK AND DELIVERABLES:

The Children's Initiative will deliver a comprehensive set of activities designed to improve health outcomes for children and families in Duval County by integrating primary and behavioral health care and addressing social determinants of health for the whole family. Below is a list of all Program activities and a brief description of each:

- 1. Integrated Primary and Behavioral Health Care: Children and adolescents (ages 0-17) will have access to both physical and behavioral health services at strategically-located clinic locations and via telehealth. Services are co-located, enabling seamless collaboration between medical providers and behavioral health specialists to address the full spectrum of patient needs.
- 2. Behavioral Health Screening, Testing, Assessments, and Individual Psychotherapy: The Program will offer standardized behavioral health screenings, developmental testing, and psychological assessments to identify and diagnose mental, behavioral, or neuro-developmental disorders, with a strong emphasis on early identification and interventions. All assessment tools and testing kits utilized are evidence-based and recognized as proven methods. In addition, the Program provides individual psychotherapy delivered by licensed mental health professionals, offering personalized, evidence-based therapeutic support to address the unique needs of each child or adolescent identified through the screening and assessment process.
- 3. Care Coordination: Care coordinators, trained in trauma-informed and culturally competent care, will work directly with families to identify and address barriers to health. Using the PRAPARE survey, they will assess social determinants of health, connect families to internal and external resources, and ensure follow-up within 72 hours of identified need.
- 4. Multidisciplinary Team Collaboration: Regular case conferences and collaborative meetings among medical providers, behavioral health specialists, and care coordinators will ensure coordinated, patient-centered care and shared decision-making for complex cases. Staffings will occur with the team of collaborative experts at least twice monthly.
- 5. Outcome Monitoring and Reporting: The Program will track and report on key outcomes, including symptom reduction, engagement in services, and improvements in social determinants of health. Data will be used for continuous quality improvement and shared with stakeholders as required.

PROGRAM IMPACT & REPORTING:

1. Attainment and Measurement of Program Goals and Objectives: The Children's Initiative will achieve its goals through the integration of behavioral health and primary care services, the use of evidence-based screening and assessment tools, and the delivery of individualized therapeutic interventions. Program objectives such as increasing access to care, improving health outcomes, and addressing social determinants of health will be met by providing services at strategic clinic locations and through telehealth, extending hours to evenings and weekends, and employing a multidisciplinary team approach. Progress will be measured using standardized assessment tools to track symptom severity and improvement with PHQ-9 and PSC-17 scores, where 20% of children who complete the assessments and engage in services will see improvement in scores. Data on social determinants of health through the PRAPARE survey will be collected and analyzed for families who complete the survey where 80% of those who indicate a risk will be provided with resources or care coordination services within 30 days. Data will be regularly reviewed and reported to stakeholders to ensure accountability and continuous quality improvement.

- 2. Program Achievements in the Previous Year: During the full first year preceding this funding request, The Children's Initiative successfully served over 21,000 children, expanding access to integrated care by increasing the number of behavioral health professionals and care coordinators, implementing extended clinic hours, and enhancing telehealth services. Notable achievements included a significant increase in the number of children receiving both physical and behavioral health services in a co-located setting, improved compliance with recommended care, and a reduction in missed appointments. Additionally, the program strengthened its care coordination efforts, resulting in faster connections to community resources and improved outcomes related to social determinants of health. More than 3,000 children received testing and were assessed for a behavioral or neuro-developmental disorder, and nearly 16,000 families were supported through care coordination efforts.
- 3. Anticipated Number of Residents Served and Projected Program Impact: In the upcoming year, The Children's Initiative anticipates serving approximately 15,000 children and adolescents in Duval County. The projected impact includes increased access to high-quality, integrated health care for underserved populations, improved mental and behavioral health outcomes, and reduced disparities related to social determinants of health. By providing comprehensive care, early identification and intervention, and robust care coordination, the Program expects to achieve measurable improvements in symptom reduction, engagement in care, and overall well-being for participating children and their families. The initiative also aims to serve as a scalable model for advancing pediatric health equity in the broader community.
