

CORETTA HILL

With more than 25 years of experience in nonprofit management, Coretta Hill's professional expertise spans executive leadership strategy development and planning, organizational management, change management, fundraising and communications.

As Chief Operating Officer, she oversees strategy development and improvements to operational efficiency at United Way of Northeast Florida, having previously served as Vice President of Volunteer and Community Engagement for more than a decade. Coretta started her United Way career at United Way of Southwest Georgia in Albany several years ago as the Director of Marketing and Communications.

She has previously served as Executive Director of the March of Dimes in Buffalo, NY; and Marketing Director for Central Texas College Pacific Division in Okinawa, Japan. Most recently, she served as Vice President of the Jacksonville Public Education Fund, where she led strategy implementation and operations.

Coretta holds an MPA from Albany State University as well as a BA in mass communications from Fort Valley State University. She is Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for Level the Playing Field Leadership Academy, and also serves on the board of the North Florida School of Special Education and Tiger Academy. In addition, she serves on the Steering Committee JaxUSA Elevate Women, a member of the 2022 Leadership Florida Education 6 Class, Jacksonville Women's Network, and 2019 Leadership Jacksonville class.
