4 RESOLUTION 2024-336-A

5 A RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING DUVAL
6 TEACHERS UNITED ON ITS 50 YEAR HISTORY OF 7 SUPPORTING AND ADVOCATING FOR TEACHERS,
8 PARAPROFESSIONALS, OFFICE PERSONNEL AND 9 SECURITY GUARDS WORKING IN DUVAL COUNTY PUBLIC
10 SCHOOLS; REQUESTING EMERGENCY PASSAGE UPON
11 INTRODUCTION; PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.
12

13 WHEREAS, Duval Teachers United was formed in 1974 during a 14 period of upheaval and contention about the funding and administration
15 of public education in Florida following the statewide teachers strike 16 in February and March of 1968; and

17 WHEREAS, Duval Teachers United resulted from a series of 18 negotiations between competing teacher unions and produced a single 19 organization to represent teachers in their negotiations with Duval 20 County Public Schools on matters including compensation, benefits and 21 working conditions in schools; and

22 WHEREAS, in subsequent years the union expanded its membership
23 to include paraprofessionals, office employees and security guards 24 as well as teachers and now represents the collective interests of 25 the vast majority of school personnel in the district; and

26 WHEREAS, Duval Teachers United has long advocated for 27 recognition of the professionalism and dignity of education
28 professionals and has created avenues for in-service professional 29 development of its members utilizing the latest in proven research
30 along with workshops and conferences featuring leaders in the field 31 of education research; and

1           WHEREAS, DTU and its compatriots in other counties vigorously
2 advocate for the needs of the public education system at the state
3 level before the Florida Legislature, the Governor, and the Florida
4 Department of Education to ensure that the needs of students, 5 families, teachers and communities are understood, respected and 6 appropriately funded to support the vitally important mission of 7 public education in the state; now therefore

8           BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Jacksonville:

9           Section 1.           The City Council hereby honors and commends
10 Duval Teachers United on its 50-year history of successful 11 representation of the interests of its membership in the collective 12 bargaining process and its strong commitment to advocacy and publicity 13 for the importance of a high-quality public education system in 14 Florida. As advocates for the dignity and importance of the teaching 15 profession, DTU performs a valuable service in the education of 16 Florida's next generation of citizens and leaders and the City Council 17 commends the organization's members and leaders for their important 18 work.
