

TYLER G. GRANT

EDUCATION

University of Virginia School of Law, Charlottesville, Virginia
J.D., May 2016

Washington & Lee University, Lexington, Virginia
B.A., Politics and East Asian Language and Literature (China specialization), May 2012

EXPERIENCE

Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP, Jacksonville, Florida

Associate, September 2021 – Present

- Represent underwriters, sponsors, issuers, borrowers and lenders on complex asset-backed security and real estate transactions
- Advise clients on real estate, aviation, auto loan, consumer loan, reinsurance, rental, and mortgage and reverse mortgage transactions
- Panelist experience includes: “Policy Watch: Corporate Transparency Act” (SFVegas 2024 Conference), “Developments in Securitization” (American Bar Association, Spring Meeting 2024), “What the HECM is a Reverse Mortgage? Understanding Government-Guaranteed Reverse Mortgages, including Ginnie Mae HMBS Securitizations” (October 12, 2023), “Warehouse Lending 101” (January 25, 2023)
- Significant client exposure with experience presenting legal issues both during day-to-day transaction practice and during conference meetings for current and potential clients
- Experience drafting transaction documents, term sheets, investor presentations, legal opinions, and offering documents, with a focus on structured finance, including refinancings, venture finance transactions, warehouse facilities, and securitizations

Winston & Strawn LLP, New York, New York

Associate, March 2019 – September 2021

- Represented underwriters, rating agencies, sponsors, entrepreneurs, issuers, borrowers and lenders on complex asset-backed security transactions involving novel asset classes, including real estate transactions

Clifford Chance U.S. LLP, New York, New York; Washington, D.C.

Associate, October 2016 – February 2019; Summer Law Clerk, May 2015 – July 2015

- Experience in multiple practice groups including real estate, insurance, aircraft finance, capital markets, project finance, and structured finance

United States Attorney’s Office, District of Puerto Rico, San Juan, Puerto Rico

Legal Intern (Appellate Division), May 2014 – July 2014

Fulbright Fellowship, Yilan City, Taiwan

Fellow, August 2012 – June 2013

PERSONAL

Bar Admissions: Florida, New York, and District of Columbia Bar

Board Membership: Springfield Preservation & Revitalization Council, Board Vice President

Accomplishments: Eagle Scout; Ironman (2X); published poet; Boardman Scholarship for Excellence in Chinese Language Studies (2010)