16. DEFAULT.

(a) Notice and Cure Period. The failure to observe or perform any of the covenants, conditions or obligations of this Agreement within thirty (30) days after the issuance of written notice specifying the nature of the default claimed shall constitute a material default and breach of this Agreement by the non-performing party (“Defaulting Party”); provided, however, if such condition is of a nature that it cannot be corrected within thirty (30) days, then such party shall not be in default so long as it commences such cure promptly after receiving such notification, and diligently pursues such cure and such cure is in any event completed within sixty (60) days.

With respect to any default under this paragraph, any party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure such default by the payment of money or the performance of some other action for the account of and at the expense of the Defaulting Party; provided, however, that in the event the default shall constitute an emergency condition, any party acting in good faith, shall have the right to cure such default upon such advance notice as is reasonably possible under the circumstances, or if necessary, without advance notice, so long as notice is given as soon as possible thereafter. To effectuate any such cure, the party shall have the irrevocable right upon prior written notice to enter upon the property of the Defaulting Party to perform any necessary work or furnish any necessary materials or services to cure the default of the Defaulting Party. The City shall have the right, at its option, to either: (1) re-enter and take possession of the Property if the Entity fails to comply with the terms of this Agreement; or (2) invoice the Entity for the then current assessed value of the Property as shown on the tax rolls (the "Purchase Price"). Upon an election by the City to invoice the Entity for the Purchase Price, the Entity shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of the invoice to pay the same. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid Purchase Price after said period at the maximum rate allowed by law. The unpaid Purchase Price, together with interest, costs and attorneys' fees required to collect the same shall be a lien against the Property.
