The proposed development exceeds the minimum requirements of the Zoning Code and therefore requires a PUD.

N. PUD/Difference from Usual Application of Zoning Code

The PUD differs from the usual application of the Zoning Code in the following respects: it binds the Applicant and successors to the PUD Written Description and PUD Conceptual Site Plan; it provides for site-specific design standards and criteria; and it permits a unique and creative approach to the planning and development of the Property. The differentiations set forth above relating to the PUD Written Description, PUD Site Plan, and access are not capable of being set forth in the table below, but are a result of the nature of the PUD rezoning. Differentiations from the Zoning Code that are capable of being specifically set forth are outlined in the table below.

Element	Zoning Code	Proposed PUD	Reasoning
Lot Coverage	For single family uses:  Maximum Lot Coverage: 50%	For single family uses:  Maximum Lot Coverage: 65%	The modification to the lot coverage requirements permits the lot owners to have more square footage which will allow for bigger houses.
Lot Mix	The Zoning Code does not provide for a mixture of lot sizes.	This PUD allows for a mixture of different size lots.	Site plan provides a mixture of 50' and 60' lots which creates a unique development that will bring a diversity of housing product to the community.
