Northside Community Involvement, Inc. – Communities with Resources Working Together for the Betterment of Jacksonville, Florida Re-Grant Program

FY 2025-2026 City Grant Proposal Term Sheet

Grant Recipient: Northside Community Involvement, Inc. ("NCI" or "Recipient")

Program Name: Communities with Resources Working Together for the Betterment of Jacksonville, Florida Re-Grant Program (the "Program")

City Funding Request: $125,000

Contract/Grant Term: October 1, 2025 – September 30, 2026

Any substantial change to this FY 2025-2026 City Grant Proposal Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") or a budget change not within 10% of the attached Program budget line-items will require City Council approval.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Northside Community Involvement, Inc., located at 4736 Avenue B, Jacksonville, FL 32209 is a 501(c)(3) Not-for-Profit that has been a vital resource for Jacksonville's hardest hit areas for more than 25 years. Providing services such as: Academics (a child development center and adult GED classes); Youth Mentoring Programs; a Community Resource Center, Food, Clothing, Shelter, Transportation, Counseling, and referrals to other agencies throughout Jacksonville.

NCI is responsible for issuing guidance for qualified agencies to apply and carry out the responsibilities under the umbrella of services identified by NCI, which requires NCI to operate as the lead agency. These activities include contracting and consulting with small businesses such as not-for-profits, after-school programs and other Council District 8 city agencies who provide services to help those in need, specifically to build a stronger more cohesive city (hereinafter referred to as "Subrecipient(s)").

PROGRAM SCOPE OF WORK AND DELIVERABLES:

Project Goal:

To stimulate community action and increase agency visibility, while broadening the audience for their work, NCI will operate as the lead agency contracting with small businesses such as not-for-profits, after-school programs and other agencies who provide services to help those in need.

"Re-Grant" Program - NCI will distribute funding received from the City to Subrecipients to develop and enhance programs that engage and serve the community in the following capacities:

- 1. Adult Education
- 2. Child Development
- 3. Crime prevention and intervention
- 4. Clothing
- 5. Housing
- 6. Transportation
- 7. Mental Health Services
- 8. Utilities

Operation/Administration Requirements:

NCI shall be required to issue a public notice in a newspaper of general circulation, giving notice to the general public that NCI is seeking applications from agencies to provide services aligned with the Council District 8 Strategic Plan. NCI shall also be required to notify all applicants that did not receive a Re-Grant Program grant award and provide for an appeals process.

NCI shall be responsible for monitoring the Subrecipient(s)'s use of funds, including but not limited to, obtaining invoices and expenditure support and other supporting documentation establishing that the program is being performed. NCI shall require all Subrecipients to execute an agreement with NCI providing for the terms and conditions applicable to the Re-Grant Program grant awarded to said Subrecipient. Said agreements shall require, at a minimum, that all records and documents pertaining to expenditure of Re-Grant Program dollars be maintained by the Subrecipient for a period of no less than 3 years and that the City has the right to inspect/audit the records of said Subrecipient pertaining to the agency's receipt and expenditure of Re-Grant Program dollars.

Re-Grant Eligibility Criteria:

- Applicants must be a registered non-profit with tax-exempt status.
- Applicants will explain and demonstrate how the projects will have a lasting impact beyond the grant period and how they plan to sustain their initiatives.
- Collaborations and partnerships between applicants are encouraged.
- List intended beneficiaries for ongoing projects or programs. This can include age groups (e.g., children, youth, adults, seniors), demographic characteristics (e.g., low-income individuals, marginalized communities), or specific populations (e.g., refugees, people with disabilities).
- Types of projects or initiatives that are eligible for funding. This might include categories such as:
 - o Education and literacy programs
 - o Community development projects
 - o Health and wellness (Food, Gardening)
 - Arts and culture endeavors
 - Small business development
 - o Social, Human services and social justice initiatives

Application and Scoring Process:

Applicants will apply to NCI through an online application form or a paper-based application. The application form will, at a minimum, capture the following essential information with each category being eligible to receive a maximum score as indicated below:

- Applicant's background and history (10 points)
- Statement of problem and need (15 points)
- Project/program description, design, delivery and timeline (45 points)
- Budget with details on how Re-Granted funds will be spent (20 points)
- Evaluation plan impact and measurements (10 points)

A 3- or 5-member committee will be responsible for reading, scoring, and selecting Re-Grant Program Subrecipients. This committee will consist of individuals with relevant expertise and a commitment to fairness and impartiality and shall be approved by the Grants and Contract Compliance Division.

The committee will thoroughly review and score all applications received based on the established eligibility criteria and the quality of the proposals. Each application will be scored and assessed objectively.

All applicants will be notified in a timely manner. The selected Subrecipients will receive instructions on the next steps, to include verification requirements and specific conditions associated with the grant process.

NCI shall be required to provide the City with the final scoring rubrics.

PROGRAM COSTS/PAYMENT TERMS:

City funds shall be expended by NCI in accordance with the approved Program budget and shall be paid on a reimbursement basis upon the City's receipt and approval of required documentation, including but not limited to proof of funds expensed by Subrecipients (paid invoices, cleared checks and bank statements, etc.). No City funds shall be disbursed to NCI for the benefit of a Subrecipient unless or until that Subrecipient has executed a Re-Grant agreement with NCI stipulating that funds shall not be expended for any purpose identified in Section 118.301(a)(3), commonly referred to as "disallowed expenditures". All City funds expensed (by NCI or Subrecipients) shall be solely for the benefit of Duval County residents.

$112,500 – NCI will award City funds via the Re-Grant Program across the following areas:

- 1. Adult Education
- 2. Child Development
- 3. Crime prevention and intervention
- 4. Clothing
- 5. Housing
- 6. Transportation
- 7. Mental Health Services
- 8. Utilities

$12,500 – NCI Administrative Costs as follows:

- 1. Salaries
 - a. Executive Director $7,500
 - b. Administrative Assistant $2,500
- 2. Insurance Property/General Liability $2,500

PROGRAM IMPACT & REPORTING:

The Program goals and objectives described above will be achieved through record-keeping and reporting to the lead agency, NCI, in the form of written requests, reports, photos, meetings and focus groups. It is impossible to accurately identify how many residents will be served.

The Subrecipients will be recognized and their achievements celebrated through various communication channels. This can motivate future applicants and demonstrate the impact of the micro-grant program. At the end of the grant cycle, the lead agency will gather feedback from both applicants and the selection committee to identify areas for improvement in the process. The lead agency will make necessary adjustments to enhance the Program's effectiveness and fairness.

Objectives:

- Subrecipients will work together to leverage resources for a common goal. Creating an easily assessable, one-stop center conveniently located on the Northside of Jacksonville casting a wider net of resources and tools for the City of Jacksonville
- Subrecipients will maximize cost-saving approaches to reduce operational costs and expenses by working with other Subrecipients.
- Subrecipients will enhance services to strengthen their mission.

- Become inclusive: allow people from all walks of life and from different cultural backgrounds to work together to create programs to ensure no one is left behind during life-changing events.
- Increase credibility increased awareness about the cause, and to build trust within the communities we all serve.

NCI shall be required to provide quarterly reporting to the City detailing the following:

- Applications received
- Approved list of Subrecipient programs and award amounts
- Tracking of amounts disbursed for each Subrecipient program
- Number of Citizens impacted by each approved Subrecipient program

Additionally, NCI shall be required to provide the City with copies of executed agreements with each Subrecipient.

ADDITIONAL GRANT REQUIREMENTS AND CONDITIONS:

Recipient's expenditure of City funds for the Program and the provision of services shall be subject to Chapter 118, Parts 1 – 5 of the Jacksonville Ordinance Code, excluding Section 118.301(a)(3)(iii), except as otherwise authorized in the legislation authorizing City funding for the Program, and the terms and conditions of any contract entered into between the City and Recipient. Recipient shall use the City funds for the Program in accordance with the City Council approved Term Sheet and Program budget. The City's Grant Administrator may amend this Term Sheet or the approved Program budget consistent with the Program's needs, provided that any substantial change to this Term Sheet or a budget change not within 10% of the attached Program budget line-items will require City Council approval.

For the purposes of this grant, subsection 118.301(a)(3)(iii) shall not be applicable to NCI but shall otherwise be applicable to any Subrecipient receiving City funds. All other provisions of subsection 118.301(a)(3) shall be applicable to both NCI and all Subrecipient(s).
