Ricardo Morales, III, CGP - President and C.O.O. of Morales Construction Co., Inc.

Ricardo (Rick) is responsible for the day-to-day operation of Morales Construction, a design/build general contracting company specializing in estate custom homes in Northeast Florida. Rick is a graduate of The Bolles School in Jacksonville, FL and Wofford College in Spartanburg, SC where he received a bachelor's degree in finance. He has more than more than 30 years' experience in all phases of construction, including financial management, field supervision, project management, estimating, project development, and executive management. Rick started his career as an estimator for Atlantic Constructors, a division of Patterson Enterprises in 1985. He worked his way up to Project Manager, and in 1987 joined Morales

Construction Co., becoming president of the company in 1995. Since that time Rick has been very active in both business and charitable organizations. He was appointed to the Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission by Governor Jeb Bush in 2001 and 2007, then reappointed by Governor Rick Scott in 2013 and served as its Chairman from 2013-2015. Rick has expertise that includes banking institutions, warehouses, shopping centers, custom estate homes, automobile dealerships, grocery stores, restaurants, country club facilities, and office buildings.
