If a majority of the entire Council shall vote "yea" on the question when it is stated as to a vetoed item in the budget appropriation or as to a sum of money in ~~an item disapproved or reduced in any ordinance appropriating money, the presiding officer shall~~ declare that such item in the budget appropriation has been adopted as law, or that such sum of money in the item of the ordinance appropriating money has been restored and become effective, as the case may be, notwithstanding the veto or disapproval of the Mayor; otherwise that the Mayor's veto or disapproval or reduction, has been sustained.

PART 11. APPOINTMENTS AND CONFIRMATIONS

RULE 4.1101 APPEARANCE BEFORE COMMITTEE

(a) Each appointee, prior to confirmation, shall be required to appear before the committee to which consideration of the appointment has been referred, and there may be interviewed by any member of the committee or any Council Member.

(b) Each appointee for consideration for reappointment who has an attendance record of less than 75% shall be required to appear before the committee to which consideration of the reappointment has been referred, and there may be interviewed by any member of the committee or any Council Member. The attendance record shall be calculated for the immediately preceding term of the board or commission for which the appointee has been approved by legislation. The attendance calculation shall be calculated on the attendance of the board or commission member for meetings of the full board or commission.

RULE 4.1102 VOTE REQUIRED TO APPOINT OR CONFIRM

The appointment of all officers, employees or appointees of the Council and the confirmation or approval of all appointments of officers, employees and appointees required to be confirmed or approved by the Council shall be by a majority vote of the whole number of the Council Members.

RULE 4.1103 CONFIRMATION OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL

Upon the introduction of any resolution confirming the appointment or reappointment of the General Counsel, Legislative Services shall notify the Clerk of Court, Property Appraiser, Sheriff, Supervisor of Elections, Tax Collector and Chairperson of the Duval County School Board and encourage them to provide oral or written input and guidance to the Rules Committee and any other committee considering said appointment or reappointment, as to the fitness of the appointee to be General Counsel.

Council committees considering the confirmation of a General Counsel appointee should consider the appointee's relative qualifications, including but not limited to his or her integrity, professionalism, academic credentials, standing in the community, management skills, and capacity to work with, and objectively and properly represent, all constituent clients in the consolidated government structure.
