

Gregory W. Ealey
WIPRO Limited
12688 Sampson Rd
Jacksonville, FL 32218

- Gregory W. Ealey is a finance professional with extensive industry experience in various domains such as retirement planning, brokerage, insurance, employee benefits, operations, and commercial insurance product lines.
- Gregory has successfully managed projects with diverse teams across multiple functions and has a proven record in the assessment of current process pain points, identifying root causes, and implementing best practices/controls. He also has a strong knowledge of accounting and financial principles, processes, and practices.
- Gregory began his career in corporate/commercial lending with Southeast Bank, NA in Miami, FL, where he completed an intensive one-year credit training program. He also has experience in commercial and corporate lending, as well as investment banking, origination and large loan syndication and participation agreements. He spent over 20 years with Equitable/AXA Financial Services, offering investment and retirement planning services in Miami, FL and Atlanta, GA.
- Gregory holds a B.S. in Accounting from Florida A&M, School of Business of industry.
- Gregory is an enthusiastic fan of outdoor activities and can often be found on the tennis court or enjoying skiing or other mountain sports.