Council Member Salem said he will vote yes on this bill because it was filed preceding the Council’s recent expression of concern about vehcile donations but won’t vote for any more. Council Member DeFoor agree with approving this ordinance but wants to see a changed policy going forward. Council Member Freeman felt the Council should be enforcing the policy on the books and not waiving it, especially for an out-of-county agency. He alaso will go along with this instance because it was in the works before the discussion on changing/enforcing the donation began. Council Member Pittman said that this bill should not be considered a precedent for the future and she won’t support any more donations like this.

Council Member DeFoor questioned why the City would enter into an agreement that saves Jacksonville Beach $15M and costs Jacksonville $13.5M over 10 years. CFO Joey Greive said that rescue service is already provided by JFRD in all the Beaches cities and that fire service is provided in Atlantic and Neptune Beach. Jacksonville is already responding to some calls in Jax Beach, which will begin paying $2.2M per year adjusted annually by the CPI. That will makes the current invisible subsidy more visible. Council Member Cumber asked Fire Chief Powers to explain what services are provided now and what will change. He said that Jax Beach currently does its own fire service, but calls JFRD to all working structure fires because they need extra manpower to meet federal standards at active fires. They have a ladder truck but only 2 staff which doesn't meet the standards so it can't be used; JFRD sends ladder trucks when needed by Jax Beach. Council Auditor Kyle Billy said his office used teh JFRD's numbers when analyzing the costs of this agreement, which did not include the mutual aid services the JFRD already provides. Council Member Salem said that fire service should have been consolidated to 1 fire department countywide at the time of city/county consolidation in 1968. In response to a question from Council Member Hazouri about what has changed in the agreement since the bill was introduced, Mr. Greive noted the pension unfunded liability clarification. In response to a question from Council Member Pittman about where the current subsidy for mutual aid comes from, Mr. Greive said it is out of the general JFRD budget. He noted that the Jax Beach initial $2.2M contribution adjusts by the CPI annually, and the cost of service is whatever the cost is. There is an out clause for the City of Jacksonville after 2 years. Council Member DeFoor was troubled by the amount of the subsidy and moved the Council Auditor's proposed amendments #2 and 3. CAO Brian Hughes said the City subsidizes various services to the Beaches and Baldwin in many areas and that's another whole discussion for another time.

Sgt. Jacob Devevo of the JSO sex crimes unit described the purpose of the grant to hire a detective to track down people whose DNA should be included in a federal database as a result of their having committing a felony to collect that DNA. There was at one time a backlog of 1600 rape kits that had not been analyzed but all of those are now completed; 325 suspects have been identified as a result and 184 investigations still underway. Council Member Cumber asked if a system has been established for keeping up with the rape kits. Sgt. Devevo said that they must now be submitted within 5 days to the state crime lab for analysis. The State Attorney's Office notified victims that their kits had been submitted to the state lab. The statute of limitations on prosecuting sexual assault cases has changed over time but is currently unlimited for cases in which a report of the assault is reported within 72 hours. Council Member Hazouri asked JSO Budget Officer Bill Clement for information on the number of unsolved cases of all kinds pending at the JSO. Sgt. Devevo said that the department will keep the analyzed rape kits in storage for potential future developments in DNA technology.
