EMERGENCY/APPROVE

CM Newby explained that these funds are coming from leftover monies in his CP contingency account. The recipient organization, First Coast Community Development, provides meals and services for vulnerable residents and those experiencing homelessness.

CM Boylan asked if CM Newby was affiliated with this nonprofit, as an employee or a board member. CM Newby said no, but that he had volunteered his time on a few occasions to help serve meals. CM Diamond said that he supports this bill, but that he thinks waivers to Chapter 118, Ord. Code to permit direct contracts without a competitive bidding process are too frequent. Emergency passage on second reading is requested so that the funds can be encumbered for this agency before the fiscal year ends on September 30th when any unencumbered funds would be swept into the General Fund balance. The emergency passage was approved with a 6-0 voice vote.
